Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Objections to Campbellism An introduction to a book is as necessary as to a party. By it the reader learns in advance what will be his fare. But introductions, we are sorry to believe, are seldom read, and readers not being properly introduced set-out to read, and failing to be introduced at the outset - lay the book by and never read at all. Therefore, no matter how rich the intellectual fare may be, the reader, tired too soon, never tastes it. I have consented to write this introduction at the request of the author. His name, where he is known, is enough to warrant all that can be said in favor of his book. Converted in early life, blessed with only limited early opportunities for the development of his mind, but a life-long student, honored with the place of a Local Elder in the M. E. Church South, and elected a lay delegate to the councils of the Church a number of times, will give the reader some idea of the esteem in which he is held at home. And last but not least, he has a deep spiritual experience in the things of God; hence, much that is contained in the book that is before you, will not only entertain and instruct the mind, but feed the soul as well. The subject discussed in his book is of vital importance, as it would overthrow the joys of salvation by faith and substitute therefor a faith predicated on the letter which killeth, while it is the Spirit that giveth life. I have read carefully the contents of this little book, and would urge all...
