Hachette Book Publishing India Pvt. Ltd., Gurgaon, India, 2012. Soft cover. Book Condition: New. I'm the Superintendent of Police, Shimla. And, with all due respect, sir, who the hell are you? 'When a body mysteriously appears at the bottom of the otherwise serene hills of Sonargam in peak tourist season, Superintendent of Police, Shimla, Niki Marwah, and her crack team of investigators must act quickly to find out how Rak Mehta, the hotshot President & CEO of a super-successful publishing company, landed there. As they scour the grounds of the luxurious Lotus Resort, where Indigo's employees have checked in for their annual conference, the police team uncovers bitter rivalries, secret grudges and vicious lies -not to mention the victim's own sordid past that has made him more enemies than friends. Lipstick stains, condoms, a notebook full of rambling code; bribery, mind games, broken promises-everything points to murder. And, with the list of suspects growing, it will take all of Niki's ingenuity and skill to catch the killer before Sonargam's idyllic landscape is disrupted once again. Page Extent: 336.
