GRIN Verlag GmbH Nov 2014, 2014. Taschenbuch. Book Condition: Neu. 211x151x6 mm. Neuware - Bachelor Thesis from the year 2012 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies - Literature, grade: 1,3, University of Bamberg, language: English, abstract: This work analyses prejudices in Elizabeth Gaskell's 'North and South' and Jane Austen's 'Pride and Prejudice'. Both novels employ a wide range of prejudices which I will compare in categories such as gender, space and class. The thesis basically investigates the constitution of prejudices in the two novels. Moreover, it explores their causes and how the characters eventually overcome them. My aim is to draw a concise and structured overview of the prejudices in 'North and South' and 'Pride and Prejudice' as well as to compare the characters' ways of dealing with them. As a means to a better understanding of my argumentation I will begin with a brief presentation of Regency and Victorian society focusing on their conventions and value systems. In this context I want to inform about the strictly organised class system, the role of women, as well as regional ideological differences between the North and South of England in both eras which resembled each other to...
