

Discretion, Community and Correctional Ethics (Hardback)

By -

ROWMAN LITTLEFIELD, United States, 2001. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 234 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Is it possible to develop and instill a professional ethic for prison personnel that, in partnership with formal regulatory constraints, will mediate relations among officers, staff, and inmates, or are the failures of imprisonment as an ethically-constrained institution so deeply etched into its structure that no professional ethic is possible? The contributors to this volume struggle with this central question and its broader and narrower ramifications.
