Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Central European Universities After the War About the middle of the Summer Term of 1922, it was suggested, at a meeting organised by the Oxford Secretary of the Universities Committee of the Imperial War Relief Fund, that a party should be formed, consisting of members of Oxford University, to make a tour of the universities of five central European countries. The objects of the tour were two. The immediate purpose was that the party should obtain an insight into the conditions prevailing among students of their own age in those countries which had been stricken by the war, so that they might conduct propaganda on their behalf in Oxford, and if possible in a wider circle, after their return. The more remote, but perhaps more important aim, was to establish a precedent in English universities by which a definite attempt should be made to promote understanding between the rising generations of European countries. It was first proposed that the party should consist of about 25 persons, and should include a certain number of women students,...
