Sandlapper Publishing Inc, Orangeburg, SC, 1986, 1st edition, 1986. Soft cover. Book Condition: New. No Jacket. 1st Edition. 412 pages, glossary, trade paperback, Fine condition in soft covers. Brand New! Never Read! 'Mike Billingsley volunteered for officer training and combat duty in Vietnam with the U. S. Marine Corps. Billingsley led his men through the jungles and the rice paddies, discovering along the way that men are built of more than blood and bone. He discovered that he could be bent, but not broken, by the rigors of warfare and the emotional strain of the Vietnam War. BENT, BUT NOT BROKEN is a thrilling fictional account of a young Atlanta man's experience. Gerald L. Gillis has skillfully juxtaposed action with emotion in the battlezone and deals sensitively with the emotional tension that afflicted the men in the field and continued to plague them after their return home'. The author is a native of Atlanta, GA and served as a Marine officer from 1970-1973.
